

4th July 2011 Newsletter

Hello Everyone,

There are number of important items in this newsletter so please make sure you read the whole email and feel free to ask any questions or just hit the reply button. Mandy is always ready to be of service at the end of the phone between 9.00am and 3.00pm on 09 2988322.

Targa NZ

There are quite a number of changes to this year's event due to the Rugby World Cup. Not only are we going north to Whangarei for the first time, but we have decided to delay the

October. As many of you may know, the RWC final is on Sunday night 23rd October at Eden Park, so just a couple of things to consider. Accommodation in Auckland is both rare and expensive on Sunday. This means that if you are not already planning to be at the final then you can now stay at home and watch it on the telly. Documentation and full itinerary details are on the website under 2011 Targa New Zealand. If you are coming from a distance, then plan early. This means there is no prologue stage on the Monday and racing will start on Tuesday, so please have your vehicle sorted well before the start of the event. There are plenty of track days opportunities around so make sure you plan accordingly.

Hampton Downs

Uncles Evening tomorrow afternoon, Tuesday 5th July from 2pm till 5pm at Hampton Downs. Lots of fun, but spaces are limited so for more information please contact Hayden on 021 514422 or email him on highoctaneltd@hotmail.com

SpeedShow

It is now only a few weeks away from the SpeedShow and we will again be there waving the Targa Flags. There are a few more changes this year, so it should be worth the visit. Listed below is some information about a development seminar that is the brain child of Brendon from D1NZ, however it looks like there could be some useful information to be obtained, so if you are keen, make sure you register. Here are the details he forwarded us.

D1NZ Motorsport Development Seminar

CRC Speedshow

ASB Corporate Room

Level 2

ASB Showgrounds

July 23 2011

Why take part in the seminar?

- Learn to be a better developed motorsport driver from top of the game drivers
- Have an improved understanding of how to market yourself so you don't work to take part in motorsport by gaining professional support
- Get a head start on the competition

- Learn from the finest
- Enhance your personal health, finances and potential
- Enjoy a professional friendly atmosphere where open discussions and questions are welcomed by our speakers

Areas where the Motorsport Development Seminar speakers will be presented from are:

Media/TV Dave Hedge, Print NZ Herald Motorsport Editor, Eric Thompson, Sponsorship Jayne McEwan (Marketing Manager of Castrol NZ) Health and Nutrition , Guest Speakers Motorsport: John Macintyre (3 x BNT V8 Champion) Rally: Emma Gilmour (One of NZ's leading female motorsport athletes), Drifting: Mad Mike Whiddett ( NZ's most recognised international drifting athlete)

Ahead of the educational benefits this seminar will offer, each participant is served with morning/afternoon tea, a hot unch and refreshments. Attendees will have the opportunity to mix and mingle at New Zealand's leading motorsport and lifestyle event Speedshow plus a two day pass to witness the drifting and all the great action happening throughout. Guests will also receive a gift bag packed with items from all of their sponsors, priority opportunity to attend corporate meet and great days at Hampton Downs in the coming months and a Motorsport Development Seminar folder with notes and a full season DVD of D1NZ. There are limited slots open for this and it should be of benefit to you for all your motorsport. Spots will fill fast as they have had a lot of interest from other motorsport codes to attend.
